

November 3, 2020 Professional Learning Day- Seeking Presenters!

Have you learned something new/or have a strategy that you would like to share?

Is it aligned to one of these three strands: Technology, Teaching & Learning, or SEL?

Would you like to share your knowledge with colleagues from across the district?

If so, you should consider applying to be a presenter for the day!

Questions & Answers

- What is the format of the conference? Virtual
- How long will my presentation need to be? 50 minutes
- Can I present with a colleague? Yes, we recommend two presenters; one to facilitate the session and the other to manage the chat box.
- How many times will I be asked to deliver my session? Depending on the content of your presentation, you could be asked to present multiple times throughout the day.
- Does my presentation need to be about a specific topic? No, but it must be content specific and align to one of the conference strands: technology, teaching & learning, or Social & Emotional Learning.
- What is the deadline to apply? Applications must be submitted by October 6, 2020 to be considered. However, we prefer submissions to come earlier.
- What happens to my application once it is submitted? A team will review the application to see if your presentation fits the current learning needs of our teachers. Please thoroughly complete the application questions in detail so the team has a clear understanding of what you would like to present and how it will impact participants.
- When will I learn if I my presentation has been selected? You will be notified by October 13, 2020.
- What happens if my presentation is selected? The team who selected your presentation will guide you through the process. They will give you deadlines to submit hard copies, protocols, etc. for review. They will also provide feedback to allow you to make some tweaks to your presentation.
- Are there any meetings that I will need to attend if my proposal is accepted? Yes, you will need to attend a “presenters meeting” being hosted by the Professional Development Office to discuss presenter expectations. The office/department who selects your presentation may ask for additional meetings.
- How do I submit my application? Simply follow the link on this page! Be sure to include all required information. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.
