KINDERGARTEN - 2nd GRADE
EARLY LITERACY SUMMIT

We are excited to present Henry County’s first Kindergarten-2nd Grade Early Literacy Summit where we will inspire your thinking to transform practice for students in your classroom. Teachers will engage in professional learning to gain understanding of the district’s balanced literacy framework and enhance early literacy instructional practices to better support the academic needs of K-2 students.

TRAINING INFORMATION
Select one of the following dates:

- Dates: June 14th, 21st, 26th, or 28th
- Time: 8am – 4pm, Lunch on your own

* Those unable to attend one of the summer dates will be expected to attend a session re-delivered during pre-planning.

Location:
Henry County Schools Education Center
109 Lee Street, Stockbridge GA 30281

LEARNING SESSIONS

FOR TEACHERS:

- Reader’s Workshop – Address the needs of young students through the Reader’s Workshop Model using whole group, small group, and individual instruction. This model allows teachers to not only meet the standards but also provide students the time and support they need to develop into fluent readers.

- Writer’s Workshop – Engage in a writing workshop to learn how everyday practices can empower writers through the use of mentor texts, anchor charts, and writing strategies. Teachers will gain understanding of using Writer’s Workshop to teach all forms of writing through explicit instruction, guided practice, and independent work.

- Building a Phonics Foundation - Learn the importance of phonics as a tool in effectively teaching young children to read. Hone your craft to quickly and effectively connect explicit phonics instruction into the application of phonics in the context of reading and writing.

FOR LEADERS:

- Building a Culture of Literacy
- Leading Balanced Literacy
- Monitoring Using Literacy Metrics
