STUDENT ELECTRONIC RESOURCES

Violating the policies for using electronic resources. Henry County Schools provides Internet/World Wide Web access to school system staff and students (users). The purpose of this service is to provide teachers and students access to electronic resources that support job responsibilities and the teaching and learning process. User access to the Internet and other computer resources is a privilege, not a right. Therefore, users who violate rules for the use of electronic resources shall be subject to revocation of these privileges and potential disciplinary and/or legal actions. The Internet Safety Policy and school system measures are designed to address safety and security when using direct electronic communication. Electronic resources include, but are not limited to, Internet, World Wide Web (WWW), chat rooms, electronic mail, data, online resources, online services, portable media, network information, licensed software, telecommunication resources, HCS Intranet, and all other school system electronic messaging systems and data systems. Staff and students do not have a right to privacy while using the district's computer network. School officials can and will search data or e-mail stored on all school system-owned computers and networks with or without notice.

All users are expected to comply with Board of Education Policy IFBGA, Electronic Communications, and follow school system regulations for the use of electronic resources.

Such regulations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Email accounts are provided for professional and academic purposes. Email accounts should not be used for personal gain, personal business activities, or to solicit for non-school system business. Broadcasting of unsolicited messages is prohibited. District employees should use electronic resources to communicate confidential staff or student information only to those who are authorized to receive and with a need to know. This includes student assessment data.

2. Users are required to follow school system regulations which concern the use of electronic resources (i.e., will not damage computers, will not violate the privacy of users' files, will follow directions of staff or supervisors, will not be wasteful of resources).

3. Comply with network policies regarding student and staff logins including, but not limited to, circumventing desktop protection applications or internet filtering devices.
4. Use the Internet for appropriate educational resources.
5. Use electronic resources only with permission of an administrator or designated personnel.
6. Comply with copyright laws (giving credit to the rightful author and not distributing protected materials or software) and do not download or transmit confidential or copyrighted information.
7. Immediately report security problems or policy violations to appropriate school and/or district staff.
8. Do not use electronic resources in a manner that is obscene, insulting, purposely inaccurate, intimidating, or knowingly offensive to others.
9. Do not access inappropriate, obscene, or vulgar materials or show others how to access or use them.
10. Do not transmit computer viruses or any other malicious programs.
11. Do not intentionally damage or disrupt Internet/WWW services or network/hardware/software that provides delivery of electronic resources.
12. Do not install or remove software on any computer or server.
13. Do not share user IDs or passwords.
14. Do not utilize unauthorized user IDs or passwords.
15. Do not post messages or information and attribute to another user. School system staff will employ the same supervision and care in determining and monitoring appropriate use of the Internet.

Failure to abide by Board policies and administrative procedures governing use of the school system's electronic resources may result in the suspension or revocation of system access, and can result in disciplinary action. Henry County Schools has taken precautions to restrict access to inappropriate electronic materials; however, on a global network it is impossible to control all available content. A user may accidentally or purposely discover inappropriate information. Use of any information obtained via electronic resources is at the risk of the user. Henry County Schools makes no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied, for the service it is providing. Henry County Schools will not be responsible for any damages a user may suffer, including loss of data or cost incurred from a commercial service. Henry County Schools will not be responsible for the accuracy or quality of information obtained through any telecommunication or electronic resource. It is the policy of Henry County Schools to: (a) prevent user access over its computer network to, or transmission of, inappropriate material via Internet, electronic mail, or other forms of communications; (b) prevent unauthorized access and other unlawful online activity; (c) prevent unauthorized online disclosure, use, or dissemination of personal identification information of minors; (d) comply with the Children's Internet Protection Act [Pub. L No. 106-554 and 47 USC 254(h)]; and, (e) comply with the Student Data Privacy and Transparency Act.
